

The Five Themes of Geography

A. Places & Terms Write the letter of the term that matches the description.

- a. latitude lines
- b. longitude lines
- c. hemisphere
- d. equator
- e. prime meridian

- _____ 1. each half of the earth, divided either north and south or east and west
- _____ 2. a set of imaginary lines that run parallel to the equator
- _____ 3. a set of imaginary lines that go around the earth over the poles
- _____ 4. an imaginary line that divides the earth into northern and southern halves
- _____ 5. an imaginary line that divides the earth into eastern and western halves

B. Extended Response Briefly answer the following question in the space provided.

The word geography comes from a Greek word that means “to describe the earth.” How does that meaning help you to define geography?
